1. Board Membership shall be open to any certified 4-H volunteer interested in the 4-H program in Oklahoma and as such will adhere to “Oklahoma State University’s, compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, genetic information, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability, or status as a veteran, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. (2015)”
2. Membership will be limited to those volunteers registered with the county office as certified 4-H volunteer in good standing and limited to four district Representatives per district.

Article IV

Officers

From the District Representatives a President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be elected and recognized as the executive body.

Article V

Meetings

Meetings of the Oklahoma 4-H Volunteer Board will be held quarterly or as called by the president.

By-Laws

Article I

Order of Business

The order of business shall be as follows: Call to order, roll call, reading and approval of minutes, report of officers and standing committees, report of special committees, unfinished business, new business, announcements, and adjournments.

Quorum - In order for any “official” business requiring a vote to take place, seven of the twelve board members must be in attendance (face-to-face, conference call, other electronic media forms) or participating in the electronic poll.

Article II

Election of Representatives and Officers

1. Four Representatives are to be elected by certified 4-H volunteers from each district.

- a. Board Representatives shall be elected from within the district from which they reside.

West District: Of the four Representatives, two will represent the northern counties (Cimarron, Texas, Beaver, Harper, Woods, Alfalfa, Grant, Garfield, Major, Woodward, Ellis, Dewey, Blaine, Kingfisher) and two will represent the southern counties (Roger Mills, Custer, Canadian, Beckham, Washita, Caddo, Grady, Greer, Kiowa, Comanche, Stephens, Harmon, Jackson, Tillman, Cotton, Jefferson). The Election of Representatives will be back to back (example – two southern reps back to back, following two years two northern reps back to back).

- b. Nominations for District Representatives will be taken through an application process. The application and letter of reference are due at a specified time to the District 4-H Program Specialist.
- c. Elections will be held at a Districts Volunteer Conference. If a district does not hold an annual conference/business meeting where an election can take place, board members will be selected by the State Volunteer Board from applications received by a specified date within the district.
- d. Unexpired Representative vacancies will be filled by district elections at the district conference. Vacancies may be temporarily filled by an appointment, approved by a majority of the Representatives attending a regular meeting.

In the event a vacancy needs to be filled between regularly scheduled meetings the Executive Board may call a meeting of the members or choose to conduct the election using an electronic poll. A quorum must be met to conduct the business.

- e. If a board member becomes employed by the Cooperative Extension Service, in any capacity they will resign their position on the Volunteer Board.
 - f. A Representative's office may be declared vacant by a majority of the Representatives attending a regular meeting, providing a letter of resignation is submitted by the Representative vacating the office. Missing two consecutive unexcused meetings will be grounds for declaring the Representative position vacant.
 - g. No more than one Representative shall serve from a given county at the same time, unless there are no other nominations from the district.
 - h. A Representative cannot be re-elected to succeed them self.
2. When a Representative's term expires, new Representatives are to be elected to a four-year term.
- a. A rotation shall be in effect. Each district elects one Representative each year.

- b. An exception shall be made to the four-year term if a Representative serves in the office of President-Elect in his/her fourth year in office, he/she may serve a fifth year if elected to the office of president for the following year. This exception shall in no way affect the normal election and rotation of Representatives. If the president is a fifth-year Representative, his/her district will still elect a new Representative for a four-year term.
3. The Officers of the state organization are to be elected by and from the district Representatives at a board business meeting prior to the state conference. Officers will be installed at the state meeting and assume duties immediately following the conference.
